

Miracle of Words

Vocabulary is an important part of language learning. We aim to learn new English vocabulary by different kinds of activities such as homophones, homographs, rhyming words, antonyms and synonyms with fun. These activities will provide permanent learning and students will discover the relationship between words. Miracle of Words Vocabulary is an important part of language learning. We aim to learn new English vocabulary by different kinds of activities such as homophones, homographs, rhyming words, antonyms and synonyms with fun. These activities will provide permanent learning and students will discover the relationship between words.

18:55

